

Comprehensive design project for the chemical industry

Project included these engineering disciplines:

- Process engineering
- Plant and layout design
- Piping and mechanical engineering
- Process instrumentation engineering
- Process electrical engineering
- Heat, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning (HVAC)
- Civil & structural engineering
- Building incl architectural design, electrification and fire safety

The design work was done based on the initial information provided by the customer, in compliance with standards and local regulations and laws.

Outoplan